Toiler, when the energy is transmuted into an ocean of light, does thy consciousness quiver or expand? Toiler, is thy heart fearful or exultant when before thee looms Infinity?

The Great Event: Its Meaning and Significance

It is beyond question that a couple of thousand or so years ago a rather significant event in the Great Unfolding occurred on planet Earth. Just speculating: It could be the fact that humanity had reached a point in the recapitulation cycle of the first Solar System that indicated we were ready to move more directly into the New Cycle for Humanity and the Planet, and called forth the opportunity and the Avatar that would lay the ground work for that evolutionary growth.

What most people, today, know and consequently understand about the meaning and significance of

The relatively agreed upon facts are that a male child was born around two thousand years ago probably in what we now call Bethlehem. He lived about 33 years and was crucified.

that event comes from the analysis and opinions of the data found in the bestselling book in human history, the Bible. Thing about this data source is that it has been published and republished hundreds if not thousands of times with many language and interpretation variations and different chapters or books. Which of these various Bibles is the best source of what actually occurred around this significant event depends on which religion, or which branch of which religion one may favor. A Google search on the birth of Christ will return in the neighborhood of 3,280,000 hits.

The effect of this 2000 year long tons of research and the consequent thoughtform blizzard which it has generated has been to largely obfuscate both the man and His message. Very simply: The one point of almost universal agreement is that a male child was born to a woman. After that statement all other data points have been and continue to be hotly debated.

However, the exact historical details of the man's life are not discernable and are only marginally important anyway. The relatively agreed upon facts are that a male child was born around two thousand years ago probably in what we now call Bethlehem. He lived about 33 years and was crucified.

Most of the bits of data we have regarding this person's life come from personal recollections and narratives. These are found in the first four books of the New Testament. They recount, with not much detail, the life of this person whose given name was Jesus.

In today's political/economic world paradigm that Jesus would have had lots of friends. He was very young, very bright and concerned with the common good and general welfare of humanity. This, as history has shown over and over, can be a very dangerous combination of attributes for long life.

To be brief, Jesus, whom many of us know as the Christ, got into politics which is and always has been associated with religion and money or power. What else is an Avatar supposed to do? It is pretty hard to do the avatar thing in a mountain cave. Avataring requires hands and feet on the turf. As Master M, Rossul Morya (Росул Мориа), points out in Illumination, II: V:5, Christ made this very clear and very simple:

"During the night march the guide lost his way. After some seeking I found Christ seated upon a sand mound looking at the sands flooded by moonlight. I said to Him, "We have lost the way. We must await the indication of the stars."

"Rossul M., what is a way to Us, when the whole world is awaiting Us?"

Then, taking His bamboo staff, He traced a square around the impression of His foot, saying "Verily, by human feet." And making the impression of His palm, He surrounded it also with a square. "Verily, by human hands."

Between the squares He drew the semblance of a pillar surmounted by an arc. He said: "O how Aum shall penetrate into the human consciousness! Here I have drawn a pistil and above it an arc, and have set the foundation in four directions. When by human feet and human hands the Temple will be built wherein will blossom the pistil laid by Me, then let the Builders pass by My Way. Why should We await the way, when it is before Us?" Illumination, II: V:5.

Christ was very good at what He did. He attracted a lot attention from the common people of the day. He spoke and taught about a better way to live. It was not complicated, and was more or less based on the notion that human beings are free people, that all men and women are brothers and sisters, that one should do unto these others as if they were his self, mainly because they are.

Unavoidably, He attracted a lot of attention from the power establishment of the day. To this day, power establishments have never been fond of those whose primary interest is the Common Good and the General Welfare. Christ was not the first to experience their ire, and we can name dozens who followed.

His primary message, although buried under additional tons of mostly misleading and just plain wrong thoughtforms has perhaps been sent down though the intervening ages in a clear and simple straightforward mantram with which most of those who will read this Thoughtline will be familiar:

Mantram of Unification

*The sons of men are one, and we are one with them.
We seek to love, not hate;
We seek to serve and not exact due service;
We seek to heal, not hurt.*

*Let pain bring due reward of light and love.
Let the soul control the outer form,
and life, and all events,
and bring to light the love
which underlies the happenings of the time.*

Let vision come and insight; let the future stand revealed.

Let inner union demonstrate and outer cleavages be gone.

Let love prevail.

Let all men love.

*Discipleship in the New Age – Vol. I, p. 790;
The Externalization of the Hierarchy, p. 142*

A close analysis of the lives and messages of most of those who over the following 20 centuries attempted to be way showers will reveal the same basic tenets.

Well, Christ did His Avatar thing over two thousand years ago. Although the myopic view of the present world situation would lead us to despair, and although there is much of a very serious and challenging nature left to do, my view is that we, that is humanity, have made and are making very good progress in the effort to implement His simple message. We are doing this in spite of the raging stupidity and chaos which is still being generated by those very same forces who were upset with His message two thousand years ago and are still, more than ever, upset by it.

Do not become confused by any of the cloaks or masks these dark forces wear. They are at home today, as they were then, in the guise of religion, politics, finance, academia and, as we have seen, even science. The big problem they face today is that, although they do not hesitate to do it, they can't solve their problem by killing just one person.

Over the past couple of thousand years the vast majority of our attention has been directed by good or ill toward the crucifixion aspect of this event. We need to realize and focus on the event as a whole if we are to begin to grasp its deeper meanings and significance. The event was a 33 year long demonstration of the power of Love, a relatively new energy. The event began with a birth and ended with another birth. Death by crucifixion was the gate that connected the two births.

The crucifixion, we might speculate, was the breaking of the waters and the beginning of the long journey down the birth canal. The second birth, the resurrection, occurred 3 days later. Thus we have in 33 or so years the complete journey, the foretelling of our destiny.

For humanity, the Piscean Age was the birth canal. It was a long and painful labor, but now, two thousand years later, we have the baby, who we call The New Age. The Piscean Age was the doorway into the Aquarian Age. It was a doorway through which humanity as a whole had to pass. It took most of the two thousand years.

The event was a 33 year long demonstration of the power of Love, a relatively new energy.

And so we approach the full moon in the solar month of Aries. According to various astronomical calculations, Christ was crucified and resurrected in Aries. Isaac Newton placed the date as Friday, April 23, AD 34. Later computer based calculations based the date as April 3, and the resurrection as Sunday April 5th, AD 33.

This year, 2011, the exact time of the Aries full moon in this cycle is April 17 at 7:45 PM PDT.

As we assemble for the opportunity which the meeting of the highest and lowest provides each solar month let us focus on the future, on the glorious path which lies ahead for humanity and our planet. By steadfastly returning again and again to face and gradually overcome all the obstacles of war, carnage, greed, slavery and famine placed in our way while treading the path of Pisces over the past 2000 years, we have earned the right to tread the Path into the Age of Aquarius and the Satya Yuga.

Today, "Aum", that is Christ, that is Love, has indeed penetrated into and through human consciousness. It is manifesting through multitudes of multitudes of brothers and sisters the world around. This is not a mystical or magical thing. It is a matter of consciousness expansion, a matter of evolution. Evolution, I might point out, can perhaps be retarded, but it is not possible to stop. It is the destiny of humanity to become the Christ.

The Charge Of The Light Brigade

I speak as one of us, to us here in Los Angeles, as well as to all within the ring-pass-not of Arcana Workshops and the Thoughtline missive. I simply reflect what I am hearing from many of our group, as daily and group conversations roll, and from those in other groups. There is a great call resounding from Humanity at this time, a great need mounting, and they know not what is upon them. Right now we are in a roll of natural disasters and economic breakdown with threats of wars percolating. When any one of the foretold events of great scale occur, Humanity will react and need answers. We, and all our brothers working the world around, are the ones that will be standing right in front of them. Will our particular group forces be mustered? Do we want to be sure that they are?

I vote yes!

There is a great call resounding from Humanity at this time, a great need mounting, and they know not what is upon them.

We have taken in through study and related ourselves via meditation to much knowledge and impression over much time and hence become aware of exactly what is upon us at this time in history. We have context for it, the context to understand what is happening at this important turning point. And so, we have some perspective on it and some ability to respond to it that many of our human family brothers and sisters do not.

Our endeavors in the world, wherever they lie upon the range of service, from being in incarnation on the path at this time to using an outward form of presentation, all ring. Our embodied service rings when we consciously carry the note of the Synthetic Ashram wherever we go, whether we are perfect at it or perfecting. Let's commit to coming together for meditations at the time of the full moon. Each synchronizing with the group, the working group is synchronized to the cycles and so we are synchronized to the wave of coming events.

Join with your local group already gathering in physical dense, or create a small group to start. The global rhythm is alive and well - readily available to tap into. Participate in and absorb the essence of the group work rhythmically. Let's give ourselves the periodic reconnection with the mission at these points of cyclic exchange. Consistency with this practice affords a very stabilizing effect, to which many can attest.

Together we can understand the particular nature of the season as expressed by various members of the group. Each moon of each season plays its equal role in the movement of the whole. It is fairly easy for us to understand Wesak and its counterpart in Scorpio. As a group, because of our joint years of study in this and many associative fields, we have vast resources to draw on to flush out the rich and specific significance of each full moon of each season. What is in play each month, each sign of the zodiac? What energies can we be aware of? What is coming into full fruition and what naturally follows from here? How are these energies showing up in our environment? Are we responding to the best of our ability now, or would being in greater connection with the nature of the moment help us catch a greater wave making our words and our actions stand for greater light here now?

Let's weigh in. Let's bring our weight to bear. How can we, with all our resources and resolute love for Humanity chime in to counterbalance the difficult and warped events on the world stage or respond to fears arising in a particular quadrant or sector of Humanity? Whether we can or can't always answer the questions in the immediate we are placing ourselves to be aware of as much as possible together. To points of light like these, answers are drawn. Let's exercise the muscle we have developed, use the wiring and alignments we have built, still behind the scenes, of course, but also as a part of the scene we are in, and for the scene which looms before us.

A Final Word

May I say, my brothers and sisters of the light, we have come 'round the horn. Stand steady, for no-thing is over. We are merely letting go of what we no longer need, as we gather what we have, and move on down the road. It is tireless movement onward to the next progression. Our collective past has shown us the way through individual effort and now it is our turn of the spiral to take our steps as a group into the responsibility that beckons each of us. Though the tides are huge our unity creates the buoyancy that allows our little vessel safe travel across the vast ocean that is Life. We are preparing for what is to come and we are living what we have brought to aid and uplift those we know are in need. It is the endless path that we are becoming. Let us joyfully give until we have no more to give. Blessings be upon our unanimity. We invite each to join in meditation, upon those subtle planes of existence where we are one, as we gather 'round the world in our collective strength, to receive and radiate that sweet, sweet Love.
