

Thoughtline

December 2011

Up Coming Events

COMMUNITY MEDITATION MEETINGS

Sagittarius, Friday, December 9, 2011

Capricorn, Sunday, January 8, 2012

In this Issue

Behind The Mother's Veil

P.1 by Tom Carney

Workshops/Classes (To participate, please call to arrange a meeting)

- Building the Lighted Way – Sundays @ 9:00 AM
- Cosmic Fire – Tuesdays @ 10:30 AM
- The Nature of the Soul – Tuesday Evenings @ 7:00 PM

Group Meditation Work

November 25, 2011 through December 24, 2011

Let your will become the will to serve, and for the sake of that service, use it....If the personal will is not adequate to the task, invoke the Divine Will of The Christ—via the group—to appropriate the personal will. Nature of the Soul P. 495,6

December 25, 2001 through January 22, 2012

Who shall say that the statement that God is Love is of more value than the statement that All is Energy? Glamour P. 189

Arcana Workshops

Meeting Location:

3916 Sepulveda Blvd., Suite 107
Culver City, CA 90230

Mail Address:

P.O. Box 506
Manhattan Beach, CA 90267-0506

www.meditationtraining.org

webdisciple@meditationtraining.org
Phone 310-749-3585, 310-545-0910

Arcana Workshops is a non-profit tax-exempt corporation. Donations are greatly appreciated and tax-deductible

Behind The Mother's Veil

I have never been able to resonate with the notion that the Mother of The World was veiled. And as it turns out, after a whole bunch of years of pondering on this and tons of examples, the Mother was not at all veiled in terms of nurturing and supporting the Planet and all the beings who live in and on it. What was veiled, by the Planetary Guides was knowledge of the sources, the kinds of, and the keys to her power, and how to work with it.

This came about because in the later stages of the Atlantian Civilization, humanity was polarized in the emotional body and had developed the ability to use the energies of the Mother to create on the physical plane. Our ancient foes, the Brothers of Darkness, fed and energized the lower desires of humanity who used their creative powers for selfish ends.

It was the gross mal-use of the Cosmic energy we call the feminine planetary power that crashed the system we refer to as the Atlantian Civilization. The system became so out of balance that a reboot was simply necessary to salvage it. Obviously, the viruses, or thoughtforms, to use the esoteric language, that had caused the system failures had to be eliminated. And the knowledge of how to use the power aspects of this particular Cosmic energy had to be quarantined or veiled until we could use them safely, that is within the Laws of Cosmic Physics. Such use required the up leveling or consciousness expansion of Humanity so that we could get a handle on it.

The Atlantian system became so out of balance that a reboot was simply necessary to salvage it.

So, the first thing was to awaken the mental body and bring the mind on line. We worked on that for a very long time. Today a large percentage of humans actually use the power of the lower mental body, the power to use thought to direct energy, to consciously sort out their lives, and significant numbers of us have opened the dimensions above the lower mental frequencies and are becoming acquainted with the higher, abstract dimensions of the Real World. It begins to appear that we are on the Path of triumph.

Human consciousness has, is, and will continue to evolve. What the evolution of consciousness means is that humans have begun to see through the illusion of separation and realize the factual interrelatedness of all life. This realization creates relationship with all that lies outside of our own skin bags and a recognition of our essential brotherhood, our Unanimity with all life. This is a direct result of the awakening Heart, the ability to consciously register the presence of the Cosmic Energy of Love.

It was this specific aspect of humanness that was not sufficiently present in Atlantis for those brothers, who were ourselves, to "handle" the power of the Mother. Today it is beginning to look like we have finally arrived at that point and we are going to be able to "take a look under the hood", so to speak, and at last see the whole Mother.

So, some clarification: The Mother is the name we give to a Cosmic Energy that is actually the negative pole of the creative process that The Father initiated. The Father is a name we give to another Cosmic Energy that is actually the positive pole of the creative process,. "The Lord of the World, through meditation, is carrying forward processes which He instituted in His original, creative meditation—back in the darkest night of the time when He decided to create this planet of ours for strictly redemptive purposes. The whole creation is the result of His directed and controlled thought—a process of sustained thinking which sweeps all the creative energies into evolutionary and cyclic activity, in conformity to the pattern which He eternally visualizes." Discipleship In The New Age II P.222,3

The Mother is a Cosmic Energy that always and only exists in relationship with the Cosmic Energy we call the Father. The Mother is negative, or, since the term "negative" carries some awful manufactured connotations that have distorted its true function and value, we can call it receptive. The Father is positive, or since referring to the Father as positive, makes the Father sound superior to the Mother, which is the old, ridiculous, self conscious way of looking at Life, we can call it initiating.

There is, of course an indispensable third part to this Reality, for there is actually no such thing as an independent one or two thing. If it, whatever "It" is, is going to be a thing, that is manifest as a form, then it will be three. So, creation always works from 0 to 3, or from nothing to something, and always simultaneously, that is in the same breath. The indispensable third part of Reality is called the Son. Like Mother and Father, Son is a word we use to clothe another Cosmic Energy which is neither negative or positive but relates the two to each other. We call this energy Love.

The Mother is a Cosmic Energy that always and only exists in relationship with the Cosmic Energy we call the Father.

If we would look at what we call an atom in this light we would see that it is made up of protons, neutrons and electrons. Maybe the proton carries the purpose or intention, the neutron is the relational energy and the electron is the manifesting energy. So all the elements are made up of various numbers of these three parts, but what makes gold, gold and lead, lead is not the number of neutrons, protons and electrons, but the intention or purpose imbedded in the protons. This would account for the incredible diversity we observe in Universe.

There are some interesting things that the always and only coexisting presence of these three—purpose, relationship, and manifestation—reveal. Behind the manifesting Three, which we see as the One Universe, there is Nothing. The thing that is a bit hard to get about Nothing is that, although it is not anything, it is the possibility of all things. This is the old story of Being and Nothingness, of Ying and Yang. One simply cannot have anything without the possibility of everything. Cosmic Intention guarantees inexhaustible diversity.

The problem we face as human beings is in choosing which way/path to follow through this blizzard of possibilities. And for this we have the unavoidable "gift" of free will. Forget about trying to get this with the intellect. Since Nothing is not a form, it cannot be, "known", that is reduced to an intellectually intelligible form. It can only be experienced or realized. To experience or realize something, we must Love it. Loving something is how we experience it, and experiencing it is the only way we can understand it. MM told us long ago that "The measure of understanding is the degree of Love." After we have experienced or "been it" we can understand it, and then we can "sort of" know it. Love is the lantern that lights the Way, that narrow razor edged Path, through the blizzard of the possible.

Our problem is that the second we make a form of It, whatever It is, we have left the majority of It out. We end up with a shadow on the wall of a cave. This is what the Ancients were trying to tell us when they said "we murder to create." And that is what Master Plato was trying to point out in The Allegory of the Cave and when he said poetry was three removes from Truth. The problem with this is that The Allegory of the Cave is poetry or metaphor and therefore "three removes from the Truth". Fact is, the use of metaphor, is the only way we have of trying to communicate with others what the "It" was that we experienced when we were in Love, or with Truth, or Nothing, or in the Silence.

So, what this all has to do with the Mother of the World is that once again, when we try to embody a Cosmic Energy in a form, i.e., The Mother of the World, we leave out most of the actual qualities of the Cosmic Energy. In one instance, we end up with metaphors which carry the frequency of Truth, and which are actual doorways into the Truth, but which still must be loved or experienced to be understood. But more often, we have lower mental generated thoughtforms of a Cosmic Energy that are only partially true at best and frequently dead wrong.

In many respects the Meaning, the tiny fragment of Truth, that even these partial truths convey has been totally distorted from the Reality of the Life by the manipulations and sophistry of the dark forces. Thus we have the Father as a Man and the Mother as Woman. We all know how this always and only coexisting, co-creating and co-equal whole, woman/man, has been distorted into inferiority and superiority and hundreds of other ridiculous patterns. I have, for example, frequently referenced how the Father has been distorted into an angry old psychotic, and the Mother into a caricature of weakness, duplicity and even worse as she is characterized in the myth of Pandora.

If we approach this issue from a more scientific, that is detached position that recognizes, among other things, the fact of consciousness, that is Love, and the Reality of the multidimensional Universe, it is possible to remove the consideration of this Cosmic Energy which we have labeled the Mother from most of the emotional and mystical trappings that obscure Her real function and power.

To separate the energies we call feminine and masculine and see them as functioning independently from one another is a major aspect of the absurdity of the Great Illusion of Separation.

To begin, we need to point out that to separate these energies we call feminine and masculine and see them as functioning independently from one another is a major aspect of the absurdity of the Great Illusion of Separation. The "Mother" is a particular frequency of Energy. This frequency is present in every form regardless of the Kingdom, the elemental make up, the shape, size, or function of the form. This is a fact of physics and immediately renders all discriminations that make this energy exclusive to any particular form absurd and reveals such discriminations as the sophistic work of the Great Illusion of separation. Likewise, the "Father" and the "Son" are Energy and are also present in all forms. This is the Principle of Essential Divinity, which always and only co-exists with the Principle of Unanimity. All actually is One on an energy level.

So, to look at the Divine Mother "not as a symbol, but as a power giver", as Master M. suggests, we see that She is the Presence of an energy we call Goodwill. Goodwill is the third aspect of the Will. Some 65 years ago, Master D.K. spoke to this situation. "Let it be emphatically stated here that the major method with which we can concern ourselves, and the most potent instrument in the hands of the spiritual Hierarchy, is the spreading of good will and its fusion into a united and working potency. That expression is to be preferred to the words "the organization of good will". Good will is today a dream, a theory, a negative force. It should be developed into a fact, a functioning ideal, and a positive energy. That is our work and we are definitely called to cooperate in bringing it about." Esoteric Psychology V II P. 732 (My emphasis)

Look at it this way. The Mother is Goodwill. The Son who is Love connects the Father who is The Will to Good with the Mother. Goodwill is simply the Will to Good permeated with Love. That is the Power of the Mother. This is why she works. She understands. There is no force in Cosmos that is more Powerful than Will laced with Love. We call that Goodwill. The Mother is actually the Synthesis or Presence in dense physical of the Principles we know as Goodwill, Essential Divinity and Unanimity.

It is most interesting to realize how this emerging recognition of the Power of the Mother is in such harmony with what we are calling the New

Evolution Alignment. This alignment, as you know, brings the "sub-conscious" which has been at best ignored and at worst feared and denigrated and which is in fact an integral unavoidable part of our being into our conscious alignment, not as a feared and terrible monster, but as an appreciated and loved co-creator. So, we are understanding what the Wise One said a couple of thousand years ago, "When thy eye is single thy whole body will be full of Light."

Tom Carney
Sagittarius, 2011

Look at the Divine Mother "not as a symbol, but as a power giver."