The Flowering of The Race

*Toiler, when the energy is transmuted into an ocean of light, does thy consciousness quiver or expand?
Toiler, is thy heart fearful or exultant
when before thee looms Infinity?*

Years ago, in a museum somewhere, I happened to see this Chinese ivory carving of a layered concentric ball. It was an amazing thing, worlds within worlds. I marveled at the beauty and the intricateness and craftsmanship of the carving.

I completely missed the metaphor of the Infinite Cosmos.

Cosmos—the Infinite Sea of Silence. Cosmos, Infinity, Silence, cannot be cognized. Intellect cannot open this door. Only the silent heart can enter the Realm of the Infinite. Through the door of the silent heart, we can enter, and we can Be. That is, for as long as we can “Stand Steady in the Light”, we can See, Understand, Realize the Infinite Reality.

When we return to this walking around dense physical dimension of form and illusion, we bring, deep within ourselves, a vibrant, unshakeable, unquestionable, knowing that we are eternal beings. We know beyond any question that Cosmos is harmony, beauty, perfect balance. We understand that all of the guiding Principles that humanity has, like Freedom, Justice, Liberty, are metaphors for the unavoidable and unbreakable Laws of Cosmic Physics. We comprehend that Life is one, that all of everything is connected, that apparent separation is a myopic condition of being form focused. And, it becomes clear that it is form within the ever evolving Cosmos that is mortal.

After some exposure to the reality of infinity there occurs a subtle shift in one’s walking around consciousness. Difficult to explain, but one’s focus seems to gradually move from a focus on the dense physically observable form and evidence of what has happened or is happening, what we call an event, to the formless or invisible energies which caused and are continually causing the events to occur. When this shift occurs, one starts to live in the future or pre the event as it were.

Pondering on the whys and hows of the event, seeing and feeling the energies and forces that are causal to the event, leads into the causal dimensions of energy and frequencies of Principle. Suddenly, or so it seems, within this world of form and illusion, what we call the Good is amazingly simple to see, understand, recognize. To the degree that any occurrence, act, system, anything is the result of or in harmony with Cosmic Physics it is Good.

Almost a century ago Master M. pointed out that, “The Cosmic Magnet provides direction as well as destination. In the entire evolutionary process one must seek this destination, and the central point of evolution must be ascertained. Mere ascent is not the impelling force, as the center of evolution is the core of all cosmic activity. The chain of events accumulates upon the circumference of this core, and unless balance is established between the evolutionary and the devolutionary human striving, it will be impossible to establish a higher step. The center of evolution creates balance, and the center of human thought violates it. Therefore, during the epoch of unbalance between good and evil, prior to the epoch of Satya Yuga, humanity must show exactitude of direction. Therefore, the fiery summons gives the direction to humanity. The center of evolution, in its ceaseless flux, maintains the basis of the Origins." Infinity 1 #230

In spite of a relatively constant effort on the part of the Retrogressors, by whatever name they have been known, to interfere, derail, enslave us, from time immemorial the forces of the Cosmic Magnet have been active in race after race of evolving humanity.

"Shield and lance! God has blessed the warriors. All will come. Twilight will end. Do you not see that the Cosmic Consciousness is in convulsion? We know the course of the battle. The Plan of the Creator cannot be altered. From the Beginning the dark ones struggled. From the Beginning We conquered."
Leaves of Morya's Garden I #231

Now, with the planet's population at 7 billion, these processes are more active than they have ever previously been. It seems that we have shown and are showing the required "exactitude of direction", for today we have among us perhaps a billion sisters and brothers who have touched, even if for only an instant, "the center of evolution", the Oneness, the Infinite sea Of Silence. Deep within, they sense, they feel, they know their essential divinity. Some are more aware than others. This constant growth in the expansion of consciousness is going "viral", encompassing thousands of others on a daily basis.

This evolutionary fact has led to the appearance on this planet of what has been called The New Group of World Servers. The illusory wall between the dense physical dimensions and the higher dimensions of reality is dissolving. This New Group of World Servers is actually "the vanguard" of what has been called in the old religious terminology "The Kingdom of God."

Perhaps a more scientific way to look at this Group of World Servers is to see that they are the effects of the evolution of consciousness. Their appearance was foretold eons ago in the roots of every ancient Teaching. They are yet another manifestation of the warriors of old, the forerunners. They are the beginnings of the manifestation of the ancient dream of heaven on Earth. They are the flowering of the Race. They are individuals who have expanded their awareness of Infinity to a point where they have escaped from the illusions of the form worlds. They have, deep within themselves, a vibrant, unshakeable, unquestionable, knowing that they are eternal beings. They know beyond any question that Cosmos is harmony, beauty, peace or perfect balance.

The New Group of World Servers is a world-around, rapidly expanding group of our brothers and sisters who hear and respond to the rhythms of a different drummer than the one that leads into the conventional competitive dead end values of modern materialistic societies. Rather than serving the self, these men, women and, increasingly, children respond to a heart beat that impels them to serve the greater good of the world. At first this beat is soft and not so persistent, but as one begins to respond, begins to realize the Greater Good of the Whole as one's own basic desire, the attractive power of the beat grows more powerful, and eventually this beat, which is actually the rhythm and frequency of the Cosmic energy of Love, results in a "...fixed determination to do whatever is best for humanity or the group at any personal cost and by means of the uttermost sacrifice." Externalization of the Hierarchy P.277

This group of brothers and sisters, the new group of world servers, cannot be classified by any of the usual frames one might expect to enclose a group such as class, race, political affiliation, preference, occupation and, most clearly, religious affiliations including all kinds of esoteric or spiritual organizations. These sisters and brothers come from all walks of life and all levels of the economic spectrum, from the so called 1% to the unemployed, and poverty mired homeless. They are found in all levels of the age spectrum from kindergarteners to the elders. Their collective face is the true face of Humanity.

The imperatives of the Common Good and the General Welfare are the only viable path for the continuation of Humanity on this planet. The alternative is extinction!

Members of this group of world servers can be found literally everywhere on the planet, involved in literally every aspect of planetary life. It is the attitude of their lives, the demonstration of their identification with Humanity, their heartfelt concern for the Planet, and all beings, rather than the jobs that they may or may not have, the offices or stations or titles that they may or may not hold that is noteworthy. "They are demonstrating oneness and synthesis in such a simple way that people everywhere can grasp it." The

Rays and the Initiations P.301

These men, women, and children operate from and within a new and powerfully emerging kind of consciousness into which humanity has been evolving over these ages of years. This consciousness is known as group consciousness. And it is the observable result of the evolution of consciousness within the human kingdom. Group consciousness is concerned with the welfare of wholes, with the health of entire systems. Members of this group do not see themselves as separate from others. They are not engaged in competition for personal position, wealth, power. They do not support or encourage systems that feed or support only a part of a community at the expense of other parts of the community.

They understand the imperatives of the Common Good and the General Welfare. These Principles are the only viable path for the continuation of Humanity on this planet. The alternative is extinction!

Their group conscious point of view renders them acutely aware of the interrelatedness of all life. Theirs is not a mystical wish or hope or dream. It is a knowing and seeing on a daily basis the factual nature of the interrelatedness of life as a pragmatic reality. It is this commonsense love and concern for all that drives their efforts to build sustainable systems that nurture the whole. This is not a religion, not a hope, not a faith. This is a scientifically demonstrable certainty driven by pure reasoning will, or Love.

Does this sound like you or people you know?

We'll spread the news because these kinds of brothers and sisters are the seed persons of our long looked for New World. Anyone whose mind is connected in even a tiny way to the heart is a seed person of this new cycle in the planet's evolution into the Golden Age or as Master M. calls it, the Satya Yuga.

<http://www.ngws.org> is an internet site established some 15 years ago. The purpose of this site is to identify, recognize and bring the presence these individuals and the consciousness they model into the awareness of all people and thus to help this consciousness to expand throughout humanity. The evolution of this consciousness from the old self centered and separative point of reality to the realization of our Common Oneness and interdependence with not only one another but with the entire planet is an observable, scientifically demonstrable fact.

Spread the seeds!
Expand consciousness!
We are launching the World Spring!

We are bringing the fact of this evolutionary expansion of consciousness to the attention of the general public with the will to further ignite those flickering points of light that are present in the deep recesses of every human heart. We are not alone. You are not alone. There are literally billions of individuals who at some level resonate to the compassionate frequencies of The Common Good and the General Welfare.

It is time to recognize each other, time to realize that there are no separate nations with separate problems. We are One Humanity. There is no exclusive famine, or corruption, or slavery, or poverty. These, regardless of the nation in which they are occurring, are our problems.

We have been updating and revamping the site to make it a useful hub for recognizing and publicizing individuals, projects and groups who hear the drummers of the Common Good and General Welfare meet and communicate with their like heart/minded co-creators in other parts of the world and other levels or frames of living. Please check it out and share it with all of your co-creators.
