Group Meditation Work

July 8, 2013 through August 6, 2013

Inclusiveness is the supreme key to the understanding of consciousness. The Rays and The Initiations 7R5 P.37

Only by one's own hand, only by one's own will, only by one's own striving, only by one's own work can the spirit become a conscious co-worker of the Infinite. The lever will descend upon the constricted horizon, to devastate that which obscures the course of evolution. But the lever of the actions of the full life, affirmed as a union with the higher sphere, will descend as the regenerating Fire. Infinity I, 33

The Summer Offensive

What gets born in Virgo depends a lot on what we do in Leo, and this Leo is not your run of the mill Leo. After this last meeting with our Elder Brothers at the first full moon in Leo, the outbreathing field is highly charged with 1st, 5th, 2nd, 6th, and 7th Ray energies. This, of course, is the story for every Leo. However, this Leo does present an additional factor which is the alignment of numerous planets into a "Grand Sextile." The astrologers among us are indicating that this situation is creating alignments of the Sun Hearts that will bring enormous opportunity along with great energies into our field.

Do you think this alignment of the Luminaries is coincidental? Do you think that it arrived just in the nick of time to save us from the disaster that anyone, who is not blinded by ignorance or comfort, can see happening all around us? Well, we know that such alignments of the Luminaries are thousands, if not millions, of years in the making.

There Is A Plan

As we know, friends, there is a Plan. And we can be fairly certain that this conjunction of the Luminaries was expected by the Planners. It is not coincidental. It is right on time according to unfolding levels of the Plan that we can only imagine. Remember, from the Beginning, the Builder knew the End.

So since the turn of the century, change, real change, "Change that matters" is what we have all been, not waiting for, but working for. This kind of change does not come to those who wait. It comes only to those who go and get it.

Initiating Change

Change has to be initiated. Change that matters, change that works toward manifesting right human relations, towards bringing balance and harmony into our civilizations is not initiated on the dense physical plane. It is initiated within the greater subjective dimensions of the causal context of the Plan.

Depending on our sensitivity, our willingness, our courage, and our ability to move Soul, Mind, Brain consciously into alignment with that Plan, we can participate as co-creators in that initiation. For the past 15 years or so many of us have been consciously striving to do just that. We have been acutely aware of the rapidly increasing level of incoming Light and energy, and we have been participating in and witnessing the inexorable movement of Humanity towards an unprecedented revelation or expansion of consciousness.

And now this moment has arrived. This moment, just after the first of the Leo full moons and as the Planet is moving into alignment with the Grand Sextile, this moment has all of the feelings of a Course change of major significance for the Ship of Humanity. Hopefully we are all still on board because, make no mistake here, the Ship has changed course. This new direction is manifesting now!

The course change has very little to do with the painful sacrificing of our old used up forms of selfishness and separateness. We can leave that to those who are still lost in those past forms. The course change has to do with recognizing who we are and having the courage to reclaim the responsibility for our Planet's evolution from those who are working to run us on to the shoals of illusion and destruction.

Group Help

It is pretty clear that the inter relatedness of Life is not just something that happen on Earth, but is a condition of Cosmos. So, yes, just as a family will aid a son or daughter who is having problems, in various ways that are in alignment with Cosmic Law, we are being aided in our struggles by our Group Brothers from other dimensions and extra planetary systems. Earth does not exist separated from the Universe.

It is also quite clear that, whatever the next step is for Humanity is, it does not involve leaving the Planet. Our destiny is with the Planet. We are the fruit of the Planet, and we are responsible for the present planetary condition. Why would we who have some inkling about which way the wind is blowing, we who have some small understanding of Reality, of how things work, of the difference between the immortality of inclusive love and the death of separative illusion, why would we leave?

the responsibility for that restoration lies in the hands of those who understand the causes of the problems and can manifest the solutions.

Who is our brothers keeper if not us? Would we leave because we are so "clean" now that we cannot deal with this impure place? The Masters have not left. Why would we leave?

No Checking Out

Well we won't. This is our destiny. What is happening now is why we incarnated when we did. We are the 4th Kingdom, the link between Logic Intention and the evolution of the Planet. It is only through Humanity that the Plan can be restored on the Planet. And, as has ever been the case, the responsibility for that restoration lies in the hands of those who understand the causes of the problems and can manifest the solutions.

It is interesting to note that these events are occurring during the trough of the 3 year Solar Energy Wave cycle in 2013. This moment, especially these next few weeks, presents us with a powerful initiating opportunity. Those of us who love humanity will seize this opportunity. We will put it all on the line. We will leave nothing to chance, or waiting, or wishing. This a time for action.

We will strive mightily during this window of opportunity and carry the momentum forward during the remainder of the outbreathing cycle of 2013. Remember, it is what we accomplish in the trough that manifests in the peaks.

Old Warriors

This Grand Sextile is The Call. Those of us who are old warriors recognize the frequency of the Call. Over the lives, we have heard it many, many times through bugle and horn, and voice. "To Arms, Move Out, Saddle Up, Charge." We have been there. We have done this. We can and will do it again.

Why, by the way, why do you think that the President of the United States, who is an Old Warrior, has launched a Summer Offensive? We are taking over friends. It is our time again.

The Call #215

Deeply laid is the foundation.
The builders laying the base know not the height of the future towers.
But the architect already has designed their height.
Some structures grow only in austerity, and with great difficulty.

Let cowardice depart and let treason build its own nest.
By demolishing these nests with lightning and blowing away cowardice with a whirlwind shall We forge the way.

Go and work.
