August 25, through September 24, 2014

The cosmic Breath of the Mother of the World is all-pervading. Verily, all is imbued with it. From infinitesimal grains of dust to immeasurable magnitudes, life moves and breathes by this Breath. How then not to cognize the power which moves the Universe! How not to ponder upon the essence of Being! Fathom the rhythm of cosmic energy and understand the rhythm of evolution. The essence of evolution is unalterable and is measured by the manifestation of Infinity. Infinity I, 10.

September 25, through October 23, 2014

The heart will prompt when it is necessary to rush to the help of one's neighbor. The heart will indicate when to stop short the madness of a fierce animal. It is impossible to express in a word of law just when the necessity of this or that action becomes evident. Unwritten are the laws of the heart, but only therein does justice dwell, for the heart is the bridge of the worlds. The sword of knowledge flashes at the command of the heart. For the heart there will be no contradiction. Brotherhood, 121

Restoring The Lost Foundations

The measure of success is the degree of necessity. You may be sure that one would not leap across an abyss without absolute necessity. The more unavoidable the necessity, the nearer is the step of victory. Let the most dire necessity arise! Agni Yoga, 424

In observing our lives, mine and those of others with whom I have been travelling these many years, it seems that we needed to be driven to the brink of utter disaster before we were able to choose a path that led forward. I can site many examples of this fact, including a number in which one had to actually go over the brink into disaster, not once but several times, in order to see the way forward. Think about what you had to go through before you got that divorce, or quit cheating, or lying, or stopped shoplifting, quit smoking, or drinking, or doping, or bullying, or whining.... Should I go on?

And, as we know, what is true for the individual human being is also true for the One Humanity. Although current materially handicapped science is not able to document it, the Teachings are clear concerning one of Humanity's ancient encounters with this opportunity in ancient Atlantis. And we know how that ended.

It does appear that this edition of Humanity, the Fifth/Sixth Sub Race of the Fifth Root Race, is getting close to a similar encounter with the abyss.

According to the Teachings, "The United States of America was the centre of old Atlantis...." Destiny Of The Nations P.45

Considering the spiral motion of evolution, it is not a coincidence that just a few hundred years after this continent was "rediscovered" we had the American War of Independence. It was not the first effort in this cycle to restore the ancient Foundations of the Plan; however, the American Revolution was a significant step in that direction.

The American War of Independence, seen by the narrow minded as something that concerned only this country and England, was in reality a struggle of the One Humanity. Waged more on the dimension of Ideas than the dense physical plane, this particular struggle was an effort to restore the Foundational Idea of a Free Humanity in the minds of all men. It was a Human effort to break the ancient grip of the dark forces (anciently maintained through an Owner-King/property-slave system) on Humanity as a whole. And our triumph in that epic struggle eventually restored the concept of Equality and a Free Humanity to a global, unquestionable, Foundational Truth.

Apparently, this educational method, an unending struggle to be free agents, has been the primary driver of Humanity's evolution from the beginning. The metaphor of Adam and Eve is a huge source of sophistry and glamour; but even in that myth, the tale of our struggle is quite clear. Ever since Eve “took the apple of knowledge from the serpent of matter” Esoteric Astrology P.253 this seems to have been the way Humans learn.

Eden was perfect, a Heaven on Earth. However, we know well the cornerstone of the Path “...at the moment of perfection [a form] loses its usefulness; it crystallizes, breaks, and the evolving life escapes to find for itself new forms of greater capacity and adequacy. It is so in the life of the reincarnating Ego; it is so in the rounds and races of humanity; it is so in the solar system; it is so in all cosmic processes.” A Treatise On Cosmic Fire P. 582,3

Those who are not that interested in evolving have tended to create a thoughtform of pain around the natural process of growing, of leaving the past behind. They place the focus on what was being left and turn the process of sacrifice into some really awful and gory thing, rather than a release into the Light. Master M. counsels otherwise. “Let us forsake the past for the sake of the future. One can strive so strongly into the future that in all conditions this blessed eagerness will forever remain. Each striving toward the future is striving toward Brotherhood.” Brotherhood #487

Anyway, in what I think is somewhat of an understatement, this method of evolving from the dark into the light is called “experiment, experience, and expression” The Rays And The Initiations P. 337 or the use of free will to manage our own evolution.

Hopefully with some forethought, we try something out. If it works, i.e., advances human evolution, we keep it. If not, we try something else. Except that many of us, it seems, need to try the same thing that did not work already a few more times, before we get it and then try something else.

The micro view of this process is the stuff of our daily lives. The macro view is human history, which is not all that different from the micro view: A huge war marks a tiny step forward, if we “win” or backwards if we lose, and then another big war. Probably, most of these macro wars, as are the micro wars in which we engage, are simply the effects of deluded egos driven by hubris, greed, lust, hate, revenge, whatever. It is true however, that at times over the eons, the Forces of Light, as we did at Thermopylae and the Revolution, actually had to fight for Principle.

In these struggles, the Principle at stake at some level is always human freedom versus slavery. As it was in the struggles of the Ancients, it was in the U.S. Civil War. “A house divided against itself cannot stand. I believe this government cannot endure, permanently, half slave and half free. The House Divided Speech Abraham Lincoln 1858 The recent “World War” was the manifestation of this very same struggle against the very same forces on a global scale.

The fact is that just as this nation could not survive divided between free and slave, so this planet cannot, will not survive divided between the free and the slaves, or, to be more specific, between the “haves and the have-nots”.

The destruction and suffering witnessed on the planet over the past decades since that last war against the insanity of the Retrogressors, is, as was that war, an effect of the planetary imbalance. The greater the imbalance between the powerful few and the rest of Humanity, the greater has become the destruction and suffering.

An overwhelming amount of hard data, including the economic statistics regarding the accelerating gap of wealth inequality, the data regarding starvation, disease, illiteracy, and the growing frequency and violence of so called terrorists attacks, of hurricanes, tidal waves, earthquakes, and the destruction of huge areas of the environment all indicate that the imbalance of the planet has greatly increased, and the levels of planetary destruction in all sectors reflects this reality.

Macro or Micro, Balance or Equilibrium is an unavoidable aspect of Cosmic Physics. Where there is imbalance or a lack of equilibrium, Cosmos and the ubiquitous Lords of Karma will bring balance. This is an unavoidable fact of Cosmic physics. The presence of the Avatar of Equilibrium in the triangle of energy points that supports the Christ is not a coincidence.

Well, I'd say that given Master M's observation, we are getting pretty close to being willing to take “the step of victory” and leap across the abyss of insanity. So what does leaping across the abyss look like?

Restoring The Lost Foundations

To fix this problem, we need to deal with the causes of the problem. We focus on various individuals and groups: the political and religious fanatics, the self-appointed superior and exclusive wealthy and super wealthy. But these brothers and sisters are not the cause of the chaos and insanity. They too are effects. They too are victims.

The solutions which have been tried over and over again through the past millenniums have worked, if at all, only marginally. This is so mainly because the solutions dealt only with effects and were built on the same illusory foundations that supported the Big Lie in the first place. And though we have made some herculean strides toward the Light of Equality and Freedom for all, the Doomsday Clock is still 5 minutes to midnight.

The Base Cause

Our history provides us with an inexhaustible list of examples of the unavoidable chaos that flows from our foundational assumptions concerning the nature of reality. These foundational assumptions lie at the base of all present human cultures and civilizations. Simply put: The Real World is a one dimensional dense physical planet. From this illusion flows the concepts of competition, that might makes right, life is a battle in which the fit survive; that getting is the goal, and that the ends justify the means. However, in the end everyone dies. The life goal is to amass wealth, prestige, power, celebrity, so that one may be "remembered" in history.

Our job is to replace these insanities with the Real foundations upon which all Creation stands. Humanity has been working on this task for many, many years. Every step forward that we have taken has been based on the foundations of Cosmic Physics. We have had to rely on metaphor and mystical abstractions that carried the frequencies of Truth, but were not intelligible to most human mental equipment. Hence a great deal of glamour, as well as deliberately designed and implemented selfish agendas created false foundations and led Humanity astray.

Consciousness has evolved now to a point where many Humans have the mental capacity to begin to comprehend some of the Cosmic Principles. We are able to understand the Truth of a multidimensional Reality, and there is a rapidly growing realization that there is only One Humanity. More and more of us realize that any war, on any dimension, anywhere, on any scale affects the globe.

Our job is to replace these insanities with the Real foundations upon which all Creation stands.

We understand that there are no wars that are not world wars. There are no casualties who are not our brothers and sisters. And the children, women, and men dying in Gaza, Israel, Ukraine, Central America, Africa, the United States, by various kinds of war are our children, our sisters and brothers.

It is a new measure of love that supplies this understanding, and it is this understanding that supplies the courage we need to leap across that abyss to a world of equality, dignity and freedom for all. As Master M. has indicated, "The measure of understanding is the degree of love." He goes on to say, "I do not speak about love abstractly but as a physiologist. I consider that as necessity is the impetus, so love is the enlightener." Agni Yoga # 424
