Group Meditation Work

September 25, through October 23, 2014

The heart will prompt when it is necessary to rush to the help of one's neighbor. The heart will indicate when to stop short the madness of a fierce animal. It is impossible to express in a word of law just when the necessity of this or that action becomes evident. Unwritten are the laws of the heart, but only therein does justice dwell, for the heart is the bridge of the worlds. The sword of knowledge flashes at the command of the heart. For the heart there will be no contradiction. Brotherhood, 121

October 24, through November 21, 2014

"As a man thinketh in his heart, so he is." The lower mind should be the organ of heart expression and be as unconscious in its functioning as is the rhythm of the heart itself—the physical heart. The higher mind is intended to become increasingly the field of the initiate's effort, and hence the constant need for him to build the antahkarana. The Rays And The Initiations p137

Moving On It's Unavoidable!

The Back Trail

Many of the ancient prophecies say the world will end in fire. Up until we split the atom and made atom bombs, this was, pretty hard to imagine. Then we had the incineration of two cities in Japan. In 1947, the board of directors of the Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists at the University of Chicago started the Dooms Day Clock. It started at 7 minutes to midnight or the END. By this time, we all had seen pictures of the atom bomb explosions and news footage of Nagasaki and Hiroshima. I remember the "duck and cover" drills we were taught to enable us to escape being incinerated by the ICBM that the evil Commies were going launch at us any minute. By 1953 we were only two minutes to midnight or the end of the world in an atomic holocaust. It was really freaky.

Retrogression

Since that low point, we got as far away from the END as 17 minutes when United States and Soviet Union signed the Strategic Arms Reduction Treaty. However, about 25 years ago we began a long backslide, say 12 minutes on the Dooms Day Clock. As of September 2014, we were five minutes to midnight, 11:55PM. We have North Korea threatening to use atom bombs on the South, and there is a lot of concern about Iran and some terrorists getting hold of a bomb, the ISIS insanity, the struggle in Syria, the Israel/Palestinians insanity.

Recently, as well, the scientists added global warming to the list of global ending events. We might point out that warming is also a kind of fire. The erosion of the higher levels of our atmosphere makes solar flare-ups very dangerous and many in the scientific community are concerned about such solar phenomena destroying our electronic net. As they say, there is more than one way to fry fish.

The Good News

An interesting, but, because of our one dimensional myopia, mostly overlooked, thing about these ancient prophecies is that then, like now, our understanding was limited by our point of view, and we had only words or language to express it. So, the prophesy says "The world will end by fire". We interpreted this prophesy from our linear one dimensional point of view and assumed it meant the dense physical world will be burned up. So we come up with hypotheses like a nuclear holocaust or some giant flood or solar flare which will fry the planet in some form or another.

My personal view is that these ancient prophecies are actual Real Science projections of the Great Unfolding or evolution. The problem is not with the prophecies. It is a question of interpretation. In our time, say the past 2300 years or so, these prophecies have been decoded or interpreted from an intellectual view point of a one dimensional physical reality.

The Trail Ahead

I do think the world, as we know it, will end by being consumed by Fire. However, we will avoid the fire of an atomic holocaust or of a planetary environmental disaster engendered by global warming. The world that will end in the coming Fire is the one dimensional view of present science. The Fire that ends this will not be the fire of the mind, which has been controlled by the one dimensional view, but by the Fire of the Heart. The mind will eventually be revealed as the handmaiden of Fire, the wisdom of the heart.

“As time elapses the work of the Heavenly Men in the cosmic etheric spheres will be better comprehended, and assisted intelligently by those lesser intelligences who—by the study of the physical ethers—will eventually hold the key of the greater manifestation. Science is the handmaiden of wisdom, and opens the door to those infinite reaches and to those cosmic expanses, where stand Those vaster Intelligences, Who manipulate the matter of the higher planes, and bend it to the desired form, causing the vibrations thus set up to be felt at the furthest bounds of the solar ring-pass-not.” A Treatise On Cosmic Fire P. 330

This commentary from Master D.K. describes in rather obscure ancient language, the process, the Cosmic Physics of evolution. Evolution as Master M. indicates has ever been ongoing. “Fathom the rhythm of cosmic energy and understand the rhythm of evolution. The essence of evolution is unalterable and is measured by the manifestation of Infinity.” Infinity I, 10.

All of the efforts of the Lords of Cosmic Evil from their “...first great act of distortion [which] was to implant in human beings fear, beginning with the fear of death.” The Rays And The Initiations V5, P. 732 have been unable to arrest the gradual expansion of the Fire of the Heart or Consciousness. Today Humanity stands on the threshold of a great step forward.

Consciousness is expanding to the point where enough of us understand that we live and have our being in a multidimensional world, that we are not these forms, these mortal bodies which we have developed and used to evolve on this planet, but the immortal Fire, the Consciousness that generated and inhabits them. This realization is the transfiguration of Humanity. It is not a huge one time explosion, but the result of eons of struggle from the darkness of form identification and the fear of death that accompanies it into the experience of Cosmos and the Endless Path.

This is the path upon which humanity has been walking for these many eons. And by looking at this path from a consciousness point of view, the “golden thread” of expanding consciousness becomes apparent. It is apparent to us, mostly thanks to the production of our Teachers, the poets, the artists, the musicians, the Thinkers, in ever holding out the possibilities of human dignity, courage, heroism, self-sacrifice for the good of the whole, and the continuous struggle to be free. It is also evident in the gradual evolution of government in our civilizations from the rulership and control of the exclusive few to government of, for, and by the people.

This inborn demand of the human psyche to be free drives humanity to this day. The establishing of a democratic nation on the North American Continent, formerly the center of Old Atlantis was a significant road marker in this long, long drive. The various struggles of the people to gain some measure of control over their destinies, the Arab Spring, the Libya effort, two among many indicate the enormous difficulty of the task facing humanity. Fresh on the horizon is Hong Kong where people are demanding the right to choose their own elected officials.

These struggles are local on the planet. They are very difficult because they are seen as local struggles and separated from the whole of Humanity. The people of one nation, say the U.S., even though made aware of these struggles, are not psychically involved in them, and as a rule, most do not see the struggles of the people in other nations like Iraq, or Palestine, as “their Problem.”

To empower these individual struggles we must begin to see them, not as individual events but as effects of that inborn, underlying drive of humanity to be free. These are the same energies that drove the struggle for freedom on this continent. They are the efforts of the One Humanity.

The Emerging Unity

“The essence of evolution is unalterable.” It leads, as our history reveals, from a separate, self centered focus of Reality to an ever expanding realization of our unity and the fact that there is only one humanity. In 1945, this drive gave us the creation of the United Nations. The inexorable drive of evolution has now spun out another opportunity to expand the ultimately unavoidable Principle of the dignity of human self government for the Common Good of All.

has turned.
And a new birth is approaching
the world.

I recently wrote a letter to the President of the United States suggesting that we, this country, the birthplace of democracy in this era, initiate an effort to create a Constitution for the United Nations. This Constitution would extend those freedoms which we see as our inalienable rights to all countries and place them above the laws of any individual country's laws.

The Wheel has turned. And a new birth is approaching the world. It is time for such an effort. It seems to be the next step in the unfolding Plan. As Master D.K. has indicated, “when the United Nations has emerged into factual and actual power, the welfare of the world will then be assured.” Externalization of the Hierarchy P.603 And those of us who are aware of the creative power of synthesis and the 7th Ray, expect that this next step will not take 20 decades, more like one.

All we have to do is to take that step.
