MOVING ON

Consciousness grows by synthesis; it cannot move forward in a narrow manner. Advancement of the consciousness will proceed from the center encompassing successive circles of new understanding.... Earthly limitations reduce supermundane thought to the human word, yet in the depths of the consciousness is preserved the imprint of the heavenly hieroglyph. Aum 88

As we were saying, “the Soul Seed of the Presence, the inborn drive to be free, to seek the light, puts us in a condition of almost constant revolt from what is imprisoning or enslaving us in the Darkness. Revolution is the basic methodology employed by the Intender to evolve all of Creation.” <http://thoughtlineblog.blogspot.com/> From our actual birth, the indefatigable quest for Freedom is the driver; revolution is the methodology of the unfolding Plan.

It appears here that I am speaking about individual human beings, which I am; however, from a wider view, I am speaking about the One Humanity. Each of us is a microcosmic appearance of all of us, so, when one of us succeeds in reaching the Light, Humanity succeeds.

For a very long time, revolution or the innate drive toward freedom was an ongoing and unconscious process of free will. We evolved through a largely unconscious and frequently painful process of free will choices, or experiment, experience, and expression, or trial and error. We first become conscious of this eternal process as individuals. And, as in all things in the physical dense or 3D world, consciousness makes a huge difference in both the speed of evolution and the lessening of pain, or at least the ability to deal with pain in a more detached way.

A further great step into the Light for Humanity was signified when numbers of us began to consciously realize that revolting or revolutions are not fighting against something, but striving toward something. It is striving for rather than fighting against that opens us to the Power of the Light. Fighting against is looking over the shoulder while trying to walk forward. Notice, striving forward is not opening the Power of light to us; it is opening us to the power of Light! The Power of Light is omnipresent and omniscient. One needs only register it.

It is quite obvious that as Humanity, we have not as yet reached a critical mass in terms of this realization. However, this awareness expands more and more rapidly and with greater and greater effect as each one begins to understand and to freely cooperate with this Cosmic Fact. And, Humanity is rapidly approaching the critical mass of awareness that will let us shed the veils of illusion and, as a collective Phoenix, enter the Light. You might say that this is what we are referring as Transfiguration.

From this larger more scientific, multidimensional, conscious, and inclusive point of view, we are far better able to discriminate between illusion and Reality. We can identify the behaviors and habits which are the effects of the controlling thoughtforms holding us prisoners in the darkness of ignorance. And, as we proceed in this way, we discover that the thoughtforms which have controlled us for eons are, in turn, effects emanating from false assumptions regarding the nature of Reality. We finally learn, again through a process of free will experiment, experience, and expression, that we cannot remedy situations or solve problems by dealing with the effects. We cannot escape from violence or climate change by moving to a different neighborhood. Thus the issue becomes one of looking in at deeper and deeper levels of causality.

Slavery

Usually when freedom is being discussed, the default conception revolves around slavery. Slavery totally negates a human's free will or in effect dehumanizes an individual. Free will, or freedom is the basic defining aspect of what it means to be human. Slavery is an ancient and commonly occurring condition in which a human is classified by other humans as property and can therefore be "legally" owned, and treated as any other piece of property. It is imposed by one person or group of persons on another person or group by main force.

The condition of slavery imposed on the dark skinned Africans by the white skinned Europeans comes almost immediately to mind. The difference in skin color, other than making it easy to differentiate one from the other, was however, not a factor in the enslavement of black Africans. The enslaving of one group by another is and always has been a matter of power.

Intellectual Justification

In order to make such insidious actions seem lawful, and to morally justify itself—to quiet the tiny voice of the Soul Seed—the enslaving group must see itself as separate from and superior to the enslaved group. An intelligent self-righteous denigration of the humanity of the enslaved group to the level of being a commodity, a thing, which has no humanity or free will at all is the universally employed tool used to justify this abominable practice and achieve this level of personal comfort.

This false sense of one's separative superiority over some level of others is present in virtually all human beings. It was and is generated from birth by the imposed thoughtform of the identification of the individual with his or her form and the consequent illusion of mortality and overriding fear of death. Thus the unconscious driver of most people's actions is the very powerful presence of this illusion of mortality and the fear of death.

Generates Competition

This largely unconscious condition places the individual in situations which lead to competition extending from the simplest micro efforts to protect one's sense of personal self to the macro chaos of the absolute necessity to kill, conquer, rule, dominate others to avoid being killed, conquered, ruled, and or dominated by others, or just to prove that one is superior to another. Thus we have the ancient and ongoing appearance of various "supermen" such as the Nazi's Third Reich.

The common presence of making each other slaves to prove our superiority is one example of the huge illusion in which we are held in bondage and from which we have for eons been doing our very best to escape. The amassing and controlling as separate personal property major portions of the world's wealth and using it to manipulate world systems for personal benefits by a few is the modern face of global slavery.

As the Wisdom tells us, at the culmination of the evolution of the first Solar System, "One group has never freed itself from the principles which governed the first solar system. They were principles entirely related to matter and substance, and were at that time and in that period (so remote that the number of years of distance can be stated only in super-astronomical figures) the conditioning factors for the initiation of the time. Certain units of humanity—then existent—were so completely conditioned by these material principles and so deliberately unready for moving on to the comprehension of another set of principles (more expressive of the divine nature) that they remained of "fixed and selfish material purpose" and a planned distortion of the divine will was intelligently created by them." The Rays and the Initiations P.350

The set of principles that governed the first Solar System dealt with the Intelligence. This Principle was developed to its maximum level in that system. It was so highly developed, that the very matter of this System is intelligent. The many thoughtforms of separation which we see as real and which hold us in bondage like greed and pride, personal superiority or inferiority and many others, (all of which seem so intelligent) are all generated from this "planned distortion of divine will [that] was intelligently created" by the group who refused to move into the next phase of the Planet's evolution.

The vehicle into which we incarnate possesses the Intelligence previously learned by trial and error in many incarnations. Those skills are now present below the threshold of conscious awareness. It is intelligence that beats our hearts, regulates the breath and performs all the thousands of other tasks that intelligently maintain our dense physical bodies. The ability to tap and use intelligence probably depends a lot on karma and issues such as the physical mechanism's ability to contact and contain the energy, the social and economic environments into which we incarnate and so on.

We have been taught for a very long time to value intelligence above all things. In our educational systems one's IQ or intelligence quotient, usually determined and fixed when the individual is 5 or 6 years old, is a huge determiner of what kind of education she or he will get. We prize and admire "smart" individuals, and then ignore or at best tolerate the not smart ones, directing them into vocational occupations which utilize the known thoughtforms of intelligence and actually enforces the focus on the material world while ignoring the multidimensional reality in which we live.

Over the many, many centuries, we have created a vicious hierarchy of value based on the use of intelligence to get what one wants. This hierarchy is plain to see in our history. It is this hierarchy based on what intelligence does best, which is to create and manipulate forms, that we see in place today that has produced the so called 1%ers.

There is nothing wrong or bad with intelligence. It is simply not the energy which should be involved in making decisions regarding the Common Good and the manifestation of the Plan. By making valueless intelligence the arbiter of Value or Goodness in our decision making we are being manipulated by the Dark Refusers. "Evil is that good which we should have left behind, passing on to greater and more inclusive good. Forget not that the black magicians of today were the initiates of a previous solar system."

The worship, and that is not too strong a word, of intelligence constitutes the blinders that keep us from seeing the Path that leads us into the Light. Intelligence cannot see that Path. Again, the poets have been trying to alert us to these situations for a very long time.

Paradise Lost is an epic poem in iambic pentameter that deals with the banishment from Heaven of those who, I assume, are the ones Master D.K. is referring to in the above quote from Rays and Initiations. The Word was, "It's time to move on." These Angels refused to move on to the New Set of Principles. They lost the big war and were banished to Hell.

In the following quote, Satan is having his first look at his new home.

Paradise Lost* Book 1 Lines 241-270

"Is this the Region, this the soil, the clime,
Said then the lost archangel, this the seat
That we must change for Heaven, this mournful gloom
For that celestial light? Be it so, since he
Who now is sovran can dispose and bid
What shall be right: farthest from him is best
Whom reason hath equaled, force hath made supreme
Above his equals. Farewell happy fields
Where joy forever dwells: Hail horrors, hail
Infernal world, and thou profoundest Hell
Receive thy new possessor: One who brings
A mind not to be changed by place or time.
The mind is its own place, and in itself
Can make a Heaven of Hell, a Hell of Heaven.
What matter where, if I be still the same,
And what I should be, all but less than he Whom thunder hath made greater? Here at least
We shall be free; the Almighty hath not built
Here for his envy, will not drive us hence:
Here we may reign secure, and in my choice
To reign is worth ambition though in Hell:
Better to reign in Hell, than serve in Heaven.
But wherefore let we then our faithful friends,
The associates and copartners of our loss
Lie thus astonished on the oblivious pool,
And call them not to share with us their part
In this unhappy mansion, or once more
With rallied arms to try what may be yet
Regained in Heaven, or what more lost in Hell?"

After getting themselves unchained from the lake of fire, and pulling themselves together, the Refusers are sitting around Hell conferencing about how they should proceed. Before the following passage Moloch and Belial had offered plans. Moloch was all about doing some more war, and Belial is into “ignoble ease and peaceful sloth.” Then Mammon rejected both of these and suggested working for themselves to make the best of what they had. Beelzebub then got up and after a lot of intro, delivered the following which pretty much lays out the “planned distortion of the divine will [that] was intelligently created by them.”

Paradise Lost Book 2 lines 358 -389

“Though Heaven be shut,
 And Heaven's high Arbitrator sit secure
 In his own strength, this place may lie exposed,
 The utmost border of his kingdom, left
 To their defense who hold it: here, perhaps,
 Some advantageous act may be achieved
 By sudden onset, either with Hell-fire
 To waste his whole creation, or possess
 All as our own, and drive, as we were driven,
 The puny habitants; or, if not drive,
 Seduce them to our party, that their God
 May prove their foe, and with repenting hand
 Abolish his own works. This would surpass
 Common revenge, and interrupt his joy
 In our confusion, and our joy upraise
 In his disturbance; when his darling sons,
 Hurl'd headlong to partake with us, shall curse
 Their frail original, and faded bliss,
 Faded so soon! Advise if this be worth
 Attempting, or to sit in darkness here
 Hatching vain empires. Thus Beelzebub
 Pleaded his devilish counsel, first devised
 By Satan, and in part proposed: for whence,
 But from the author of all ill, could spring
 So deep a malice, to confound the race
 Of mankind in one root, and Earth with Hell
 To mingle and involve, done all to spite
 The great Creator? But their spite still serves
 His glory to augment. The bold design
 Pleas'd highly those infernal states, and joy
 Sparkled in all their eyes: with full assent
 They vote:”

The vote is a unanimous Yes!

Milton, a passionate revolutionist, like many of our artists and poets knew the score. He was a champion of liberty and justice for all, and he was well aware of the forces that were consciously driving and manipulating mankind. He told us about them in metaphor, the only tool available. After the Restoration, Milton was dismissed as a more or less crazy “left winger”. As was the wisdom of most of our poets and play writes, Milton’s message was largely ignored as a vehicle of insight, information, or a “wakeup call.”

The Great Teachings of our past all carry the same message. The Path from the darkness of ignorance into the Light of Wisdom is through Love.

The dominance of our ancient intellectual development is the major blockage that lies before us. We must move on from intellect. Moving on is not letting go. Letting go is looking over the shoulder while trying to walk forward. Letting go is an intellectual approach to the problem. “Before you can have this you must let go of that.” It simply does not work.

The Heart does not let go. It takes over. The thing is that the heart takes over nothing. It is a constant process of moving into a greater and greater level of Understanding. As MM said, “The measure of understanding is the degree of Love.” Love is a formless all-inclusive energy. It is the Cosmic medium that carries the will of the Intender into the world of the intellect for formulation and manifestation. Love is the Principle that is being developed or evolved in this second Solar System. Intelligence developed in the last Solar System is the Intender’s tool for creation. “Let Purpose guide the little wills of men.”

That’s common Sense.

Our biggest hurdles are the dark whispers of doubt and fear which were created and are fostered by our intelligence. I sometimes think that if I doubt it, I should do it. And, we need to be careful not to confuse Common Sense with Intelligence.

There is no sense at all to war for example. Common Sense is the presence of Heart energy, or what we call Love. It Knows!

We keep having these amazing messengers incarnating and telling us what’s up. And we keep ignoring them because to our hardnosed intelligence it sounds like some fantasy or day dream. Intelligence simply cannot fathom the wisdom of Keats’s observation in “Ode on a Grecian Urn”

“Beauty is truth, truth beauty,” – that is all Ye know on earth, and all ye need to know.”

But I tell you, when the Beatles said “All there is is Love” they were not talking about an idealistic wish or dream or hope. They were pointing out a Cosmic Fact. Of course it will take the Heart to understand and have the courage to implement that fact in human systems. And obviously, this is why we are here NOW. Thing is, no one thought it was going to be so much fun.
