Government The Soul of the People

Heartless thinking is the plague of humanity. Ancient philosophers did not include heartless people in their concepts of government. Plato in his Republic and Aristotle in his Politics had in mind organized societies of intelligent co-workers, and did not tolerate tyrants, hypocrites, or swindlers. It is impossible to imagine a strong state consisting of hypocrites and swindlers. Supermundane #244

The U.S. Constitution established America's national government and fundamental laws, and guaranteed certain basic rights for its citizens. It was signed on September 17, 1787, by delegates to the Constitutional Convention in Philadelphia, presided over by George Washington." <http://www.history.com> As it is clearly stated in the Preamble to the constitution, "We the People of the United States, in Order to form a more perfect Union, establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquility, provide for the common defence, promote the general Welfare, and secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America." According to the United States Senate: "The Constitution's first three words—We the People—affirm that the government of the United States exists to serve its citizens." https://www.senate.gov/civics/constitution_item/constitution.htm

There is no mention in the Constitution of any kind of Monarchy, King, Emperor or Aristocratic Ruling Class of Superior People, whose function would be to govern the United States of America. The United States of America is a Democracy of the People, Governed by the People, For the People.

A corporation is conceived and given birth by the power of some individual human beings. Corporations are born with the goals and objectives, their reasons for being, their very sense of Reality, which their creators placed in them. Corporations are simply bodies conceived, designed and made manifest by human beings to implement the desires and wishes of those who conceived them.

Corporations do not have Free Will. They are not People. They were not considered in the formation of the Constitution of the United States.

The vast majority of corporations, operate on a set of "directives", or "goals" that are totally concerned with their own separative good or welfare. These goals and objectives were determined by those who generated the corporation, and are frequently in direct opposition to the Governing Principles of the United States of America. Concepts of Democracy, such as Concern for the Common Good and General Welfare, do not even slightly impact the set of goals and objectives that drive most Corporations.

Corporate Personhood

Corporations, which have been given "legal" status or "personhood" as human beings or "individuals" are basically self-centered. They are not human beings. They do not have hearts, and they care for nothing other than their own preservation.

Corporation are not United States of America Citizens. They cannot vote or hold public office. They cannot be drafted and sent to idyllic spots like Korea, Viet Nam, Iraqi, Afghanistan to fight and, very often, either become maimed or dead.

Not being Humans or living entities, corporations do not need, and are not interested in things like pure water and air. They also do not need and are loath to pay for things like Health Care for human beings, or Education for human children. They never retire, and, therefore, they have no need at all for anything like retirement programs so that they may continue to go on eating and paying rent after “working” for many years.

In fact, corporations do not WORK. They simply eat.

Corporations cannot register to vote. They can and do, however, purchase, in one way or another humans who can and do not only vote but “hold public office” to do their bidding and to protect at all or any cost the Corporate bottom line to generate large salaries for the “Management Class” and a “good” profits for its shareholders.

Corporations also can and do use their extreme skill, their enormous power and billions upon billions of dollars of wealth and sophistry, to manipulate human thinking and feelings to con-vince humans who can vote, to vote for programs and products that are diametrically opposed to the Principles upon which their Democracy of Human Rights is based.

April 2017

Contrary to a steady drumbeat of corporate sophistry and unending flood of propaganda, the majority of these “shareholders” are not the trumpeted millions of little investors and entrepreneurs. They are a relatively small number of individuals or institutions who are also frequently owned and operated by the same individuals who hold huge amounts of the Corporation’s stock. These individuals are frequently board members or senior executives of the Corporations/Institutions, and in many cases, are related to one another through very old family ties.

Their natural point of view simply does not register the Cosmic Principles of Equality and Justice for All and it does include, as unquestionable facts, the illusions of superiority of the few and some sort of divine right to being better than and therefore more worthy of material comforts and power than others. No one has to read Plato (although it would help) to realize that individuals who are deeply involved in the psychology of what we call “business”, or the “Corporate World” are uniquely not fitted for functioning in any sort of governing capacity in a system whose Purpose is fostering the General Welfare and The Common Good. No one, for example, who gave a minute’s caring thought to the health of people or the Planet would ever manufacture and sell poisons such as Coca Cola. One could make a list of thousands and thousands of examples of products, programs and policies that not only do not foster the Common Good but place it in huge peril.

These individuals live and operate in a totally different world than the one which We the People inhabit. For them it is an obvious “truth” that the CEO is and should be “paid” better than the workers. A not that unusual example: David Zaslav, CEO of Discovery Communications was paid $156,077,912 in 2015. Average pay for a worker in 2015 was $89,000, a whopping .06% of David’s pay. So, Dave is worth roughly 1666 workers.

The obvious point here is that a Corporation is simply a kind of golem, an Oligarchic kind of Entity behind which the very few Owners conceal their identities and through which they work their personal will. The first and overriding interest of these individuals who are actually the operating powers of Corporations is focused solely in what will benefit their personal desires and increase their wealth, power, and prestige in whatever field or on whatever level they happen to be operating. Their consciousness is simply not able to register the meaning of the Common Good, and they are blind to the entire Idea of the Democratic Government for the Common Good.

Such individuals have always been with us. Since Humanity managed to bring an end to government by Monarchs, they have been making efforts to regain their positions and status by exercising their power through “business” replacing Monarchy with an Aristocratic Oligarchy.

Presently it is clear that in the United States, Donald Trump and the individuals with whom he has surrounded himself, most if not all of whom operate in an alternative illusory Business reality world, where Truth, let alone morality, is totally relative, have gained a significant measure of control over the reins of the U.S. Government. They are, cancer-like in effect, trying to create an Oligarchy, a form of government in which all power is vested in a few persons or in a dominant class or clique, within the body of our Democracy. However, this pernicious effort is actually serving as a catalyst and alarm to bring this century’s long effort of the Retrogressors into the Light of day.

Although for the one-dimensionally focused it is very hard to see, this event has actually brought much of what has been going on within our body politic for several hundred years out into the open.

Although for the one-dimensionally focused it is very hard to see, this event has actually brought much of what has been going on within our body politic for several hundred years out into the open.

There is nothing like Light to kill the infections of greed, cruelty, and ugliness, generated by the cancerous illusions of separation.

The United states of America is definitely not a Corporation. From the beginning, the management and responsibility for its land, water, and resources of any kind were considered to be the responsibility of the Federal government. These Natural, pre-existing resources belonged to the people, and were not owned as “private property” by anyone.

The clearly stated purpose of the Nation is to provide for the Common Good and General Welfare. These are the Governing Principles of the United States of America, and they are in direct conflict with the governing policies and purpose for the existence of Corporations.

That Light and Truth triumph over illusion and the Chaos of ignorance is unquestionable. We are Here. What has got us here is the evolution of consciousness through humanity.

The evolution of consciousness is actually revealing to more and more human beings that the literally ancient and blind one-dimensional comprehension of Reality upon which the economic, political, and social structures of the ancient and much of the modern world have been based are simply wrong. The idea of the personal ownership of "property" and the divisions of human beings into various Classes which are based on personal power or the ability of one to dominate, control, and or destroy another are the ignorant holdovers of infant Humanity.

"One group [of humans] has never freed itself from the principles which governed the first solar system. They were principles entirely related to matter and substance, and were at that time and in that period (so remote that the number of years of distance can be stated only in super-astronomical figures) the conditioning factors for the initiation of the time. Certain units of humanity—then existent—were so completely conditioned by these material principles and so deliberately unready for moving on to the comprehension of another set of principles (more expressive of the divine nature) that they remained of "fixed and selfish material purpose" and a planned distortion of the divine will was intelligently created by them. The Rays and the Initiations P.350

These "selfish and material purposes" were and are part of the "planned distortion". And these distortions of Truth along with the Concepts of the Plan were made available to infant Humans.

"Paralleling this activity and implemented, fed, and sustained by the Black Lodge, was the appearance of glamour upon the astral plane, and to this thickening glamour humanity steadily contributed and responded." The Rays and the Initiations P.188

Operating under the overriding Principle of Free Will, Humanity was tasked, literally, with learning to choose the Way into the Light through the Science of Experiment, Experience and Expression. Obviously, for us, it has been a rather daunting experience. "The situation was getting so bad that "To bring this about has been the objective of all training given [by the Hierarchy] during the past 400 years". Treatise on White Magic P. 404 However, more and more elements of Humanity have, forever, proved to be good learners, hence the giant steps toward the light made by Humanity in the past 490 years or so. Just a few recent examples:

November 9, 1620- the Mayflower ship lands at Cape Cod, Massachusetts, with 101 colonists. On November 11, the "Mayflower Compact" is signed by the 41 men, establishing a form of local government in which the colonists agree to abide by majority rule and to cooperate for the general good of the colony. The Compact sets the precedent for other colonies as they set up governments.

January 9, 1776 - Thomas Paine's "Common Sense" is published in Philadelphia.... "We have it in our power to begin the world anew...American shall make a stand, not for herself alone, but for the world," Paine states.

July 4, 1776 - United States Declaration of Independence.

September 22 1862-The Emancipation Proclamation.

October 24, 1945-The Founding of the United Nations.

After these many, many years of struggle and triumph, we have finally moved from the Kali Yuga into the Satya Yuga. The opportunity for those of us whose consciousness has or is in process of grasping the basic concepts which underlie our Democracy—not just as Truth, but as being in Harmony with Cosmic Physics—lies before us. Ours is the opportunity to serve Humanity in this greatest of achievements.

We will find the Heart, the Will, and Courage to totally reject these invasive and corrupting notions of the Oligarchs who are attempting to devolve us into a night of pain out of which we have spent literally millions of years crawling.

The power of Love, the power of the Heart and the growing realization, that it is, in scientific fact, precisely love and heart that makes a being Human are expanding, one might say exploding in Humanity. As the energy of this Realization surges through the consciousness we call the One Humanity, it will, literally, eradicate this virus of chaos not only from our body politic, but from the Planet.

The concepts that spawned greed and hate and superiority are out of harmony with the frequencies of our being Human and with our Future. They, like the dinosaurs before them must and will go. A couple of good places to start would be to eliminate the entire notion of “Corporate Personhood” from the Constitution, and the drafting of legislation to tax robots.

Triumph of the Light is and has always been unavoidable.
